

Folegandros Island, Cyclades, Greece

One of the Cyclades' best-kept secrets, Folegandros rewards those who make the tender crossing with whitewashed clifftop villages, a living medieval fortress, and beaches that have barely changed in centuries.

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Watch the tender schedule. This is a small-ship port with irregular service — confirm your last tender time with the ship and aim to be at the Karavostasis quay at least 1 hour...
- Bring cash (euros). The local bus, water taxis, and many small tavernas and cafes only accept cash. ATMs exist in Chora and at the port but queues form in peak season.
