

Wertheim am Main, Baden-Württemberg, Germany

One of the Main River's most photogenic stops, Wertheim am Main has been spared by centuries of conflict — its 16th-century market square, leaning half-timbered houses, and hilltop castle ruins look much as they did 500 years ago.

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Wear sturdy shoes. The entire historic center is medieval cobblestone — heels and flat sandals will make for a miserable afternoon.
- Carry cash. Bakeries, the castle turnstile, and smaller cafes often don't accept cards. Keep a few €1, €2 coins for public restrooms.
